Rufus Tyler Esq. Coiner,
Sir,

I hereby direct that the Centre door leading from the hall into the rolling room be kept unlocked between the hours of nine A.M. and noon; also the door from the rolling room to the coining room; and one of the doors from the drawing and cutting room into the hall in the attic story and the door from the drawing and cutting to the milling room; you will please direct the workmen to show such attention to visitors during said hours as to you may appear proper.
